Daisy's Words of Wisdom:

I would just really say I'd like to encourage anyone who ever doubts themselves, to trust what you have inside. If you can't see it, trust that God has your back. Be in a circle you trust and believe them when they believe in you.

1. How did you get started in reining?

That's a LONG story, but after 5 decades of Western Pleasure and all-around horses, and not believing I could ever tackle this event, I finally came to my senses. Kyle Schurig and I were prepping my pleasure horse for the world show. We were at a paint show in Waco, with great successes. It dawned on me my heart wasn't in the pleasure horse and all I wanted to do was get done and ride this amazing little stud horse I was infatuated with. The next day, I scratched my classes, spoke into existence the pleasure horse was for sale (he sold the same day), and I never looked back. That precious little stud horse became mine and my entire horse life changed in that moment.

2. What is your favorite or most memorable reining show moment?

The beginning really, which began with what would become my heart horse. I fell in love with a horse that captivated me with his trust, his calm demeanor, his forgiveness and patience, and his ability to sense my disabilities, and react safely and accordingly. I DID NOT EXPECT this...in a million years. AND....my first +1 maneuver...I may have just as well won the futurity!

3. What is your most embarrassing reining moment?

Oh well, I have a myriad to pick from. But probably the most was the first World Championship show...It was HOT. I had 3 rides on the same day. Did I say it was hot? Before the last ride, I was sucking air in front of the misting fan attempting to not DIE. Go in, have my last ride, win a Reserve World Championship! Only to realize, but not until I'm at the photo booth looking at my class photos, that I rode the entire class with my shirt unzipped to the middle. And before anyone asks, noI didn't notice, it was too hot. Thank the good Lord my under things were dark. But I guess this one wins.

4. What is your favorite reining maneuver and why?

CIRCLES, fast, slow fast WHEW my absolute FAVORITE things. Why? I think because learning this event, that was the one area I felt my confidence soar, and I don't overthink it. That and my horse KILLS this maneuver. He made me brave.
